Falconwood Awarded $73 Million Navy Support Services Contract

ARLINGTON, Va. – Falconwood Inc. announced in an Aug. 9 release it was awarded a $73 million task order on July 29, 2021 for professional and technical Engineering and Logistics Support Services for the Navy Enterprise Business Solutions (PMW 220) program office. PMW 220 is responsible for overseeing lifecycle management of several Navy business IT programs, projects, and initiatives, and is part of the Naval Information Warfare Systems Command (NAVWAR) and Program Executive Office Manpower, Logistics and Business (PEO MLB).

The task order was awarded under the Navy Seaport NxG contract and has a one-year plus four-option year period of performance.

“Falconwood is thrilled to continue providing support of PMW 220 in their mission of delivering Department of the Navy (DON) enterprise-wide business solutions,” said Allie Lawaetz, President of Falconwood, Inc. “Our company brings a wealth of experience and subject matter expertise in engineering, cyber and logistics. We are excited to continue support to our navy customer, assisting them in their objectives of the DON.”

Under this task order Falconwood will provide support to the Program Management Office (PMO) for the fields of engineering, cybersecurity engineering and logistics. The scope also includes risk management, test and evaluation, data planning, agile development, SecDevOps and configuration management (CM) support. The work will be performed primarily in the Washington D.C. area.

Lawaetz continued, “Falconwood continues to remain committed to the mission of our clients. Sue Licatovich will continue as the Falconwood Program Manager for PMW 220, ensuring continuity of service, while flexing and remaining agile for the future.”

This is the second contract win for Falconwood this year, coming off the heels of a $24 million contract award for Engineering and Logistics Services in support of the United States Marine Corps Logistics Integrated Information Solutions – Marine Corps (LI2S-MC) Program Office (PMW 230), also part of PEO MLB.

Falconwood is a small, veteran, woman-owned business providing executive level consultants and programmatic support for Department of Defense Information Technology (IT) initiatives and programs. Falconwood provides expert advice and consultation on a diverse range of IT subjects focusing on acquisition strategy, implementation activities, Information Assurance policy and engineering, through the total lifecycle of Information Technology systems and applications.
