

Sigma Defense Secures 7-Year, $102M IDIQ Contract

From Sigma Defense

PERRY, Ga., Feb. 23, 2026 /PRNewswire/ – Sigma Defense is pleased to announce that SOLUTE, a Sigma Defense company, was awarded the Consolidated Afloat Networks and Enterprise Services (CANES) indefinite-delivery / indefinite-quantity contract for technical and programmatic services for networking, communications, and computer systems for Naval

Information Warfare Center Pacific, San Diego, California. The three-year base contract is valued at $42M, and includes two, two-year option periods that can bring the overall value to $102M.

Ed Anderson, Sigma Defense Executive Vice President, stated, "We are excited for the opportunity to support CANES as the Navy's foundational network environment afloat. Sigma Defense companies have a proven track record of systems modernization, software engineering and fleet support for the U.S Navy and this contract is the next step in delivering new capabilities for NIWC-PAC."

Through CANES, Sigma Defense will support the design, integration, and testing of systems that are part of the CANES architecture, provide software engineering support, including development and updates for all CANES platforms, ensure systems modernization and provide fleet readiness support.

"Winning the CANES contract is a tremendous honor and a testament to our team's deep commitment to advancing naval capability," said Matt Jones, CEO Sigma Defense company. "We are proud to support the Navy's mission by delivering secure, modernized network solutions that enhance fleet readiness and enable operational superiority across the globe."
